Iowa Federation of Republican Women Debuts Inspirational Series

WAUKEE, Iowa (Tuesday, April 21, 2020) – The Iowa Federation of Republican Women introduces “From the Heart with Chaplain Hart,” a weekly video message from IowaFRW Chaplain Porsha Hart, an ordained minister from Waukee.

“I come to you with words of encouragement for President Trump, Governor Reynolds, Senators Joni Ernst and Chuck Grassley, all essential workers and all humanity,” said Hart, who will provide weekly messages of inspiration as we continue to move through the global health crisis.

“God is not only with us, He is for us,” Hart added. “If you are in need of an encouraging word, reach out to me at IowaFRW. I am praying for you.”

Chaplain Hart is completing her doctorate in Christian Counseling from International College of Ministry and serves the CEO of Poised for Purpose, a platform designed to propel women into their God-ordained promises.

The Iowa Federation of Republican Women (www.iowafmw.org) is the premier organization for uniting voices and values within the Republican Party, and is part of the National Federation of Republican Women, founded in 1938. The NFRW (www.nfrw.org) is the largest and most influential women’s political organization in the nation, proudly representing the party that first made it possible for women to vote in the United States, and working to increase the effectiveness and relevance of women in the cause of good government. Our mission is to recruit and elect Republican candidates, promote the principles of the Republican Party, educate the public, and inform the media.
